

The Daily Republican.
TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 24, 1883.
H. K. HAMMER, J. H. MOSSER, H. HAMMER & CO., PROPRIETORS.
DECATUR, ILLINOIS.
Entered at the Post Office at Decatur, Illinois, as second class mail matter.
From all parts of Southern Illinois come reports that the wheat crop, now being harvested, is turning out much better than was anticipated.
UNITED STATES SENATOR HAMPTON, of South Carolina, in a recent speech, said: "We of the south were neither traitors nor rebels, nor was our war in any proper sense a rebellion." If the rebellion by any other name would smell sweeter in southern offices, let them adopt any other name they please. It was a very foolish and wicked rebellion all the same, and we don't wonder that those who originated and prosecuted it are now ashamed of it.
The widow of the murdered Natl. at Uniontown, Pa., was left with nine children, all under twenty-one years of age, and with but scant means of support. The heinous crime which carried off the natural protector of this family, and the sensational manner in which the murderer was slain by the son of his victim, have aroused the generosity of the people, and contributions are pouring in upon the widow in sums large and small, from all parts of the country.
Some time before the holding of the recent Borthon State Convention in Ohio a Democratic newspaper of that state uttered the following warning, which it appears was not heeded in the recent nomination for Governor in that state:
The great charge made against Bookwater for Governor two years ago was that he voted for Grant in 1876. It was then charged that Judge Hooley voted for Hayes and against William Allen for Governor in 1876, and voted for Grant in 1872. He was a member of the Reformers Convention in Cincinnati in 1872 that nominated Greeley for President, and because Greeley was not a free trader he bolted him and no doubt voted for Grant. If these things be true, let them be known before the State Convention, and let the Democracy avoid a repetition of the Bookwater campaign.
They didn't avoid doing it, but nominated the Republican Abolition apostate as their candidate for Governor.
The talk about General Sherman's debilitated physical condition is greatly exaggerated. He has not looked so well in ten years as he does now. His habits of life are regulated by the strictest military discipline, and he avails himself of every opportunity to exercise his muscle.
An autograph collector once wrote to General Sherman for his autograph and a lock of his hair, and received the following reply: "The man who has been discharged, and as my orderly is bald, I cannot comply with either of your requests." A GERMAN economic writer says that Russian gold-mines yielded last year $30,000,000. The great increase in production dates from 1877 when the government abolished the heavy tax on gold mining. The output promises to become very large indeed.
We don't know where it got the news, but this is what the Philadelphia Telegraph says: "David Davis, since marrying and settling down in Bloomington, has conceived a great fancy for flute music. He used to play a flute quite well when a young man, and he has now returned to the pastime. Persons passing his house of an evening now catch a glimpse of him at a darkened window evolving soft melancholy strains from an elaborate flute."
The invasion of the country by the English sparrow has been followed by an "influx" of the Scotch potato, and this is now being succeeded by a huge importation of European eggs. The coming records in this direction, since we are promised eggs from Europe by the million. A company has taken up the matter and declared the practicability of the scheme, so next winter the works of the native hen will be at a discount, and Chinese cheap labor will be brought in to compete with home in dustery in a new field.
The Republicans in the Pennsylvania legislature will probably agree upon a congressional reapportionment bill, and offer it as their final decision in the matter. As Pennsylvania is a Republican state, this is asking no more than is justly due to the party. The Democrats have shown a disposition to use their temporary ascendancy in one branch of the legislature for the purpose of gaining an apportionment more advantageous to the party than could justly claim. The independent and regular Republicans are united in the intention to resist this unfair grab at the congressional districts.
The result will probably be that no reapportionment bill will pass.

Call on Daniels & Shepherd for a good fitting suit of clothes. You can save Five Dollars on a suit. Mr. Daniels is a customer of ten years' experience, has held positions in several of the larger cities, and has a fine knowledge of the business. Give him a trial, and they will guarantee your satisfaction in every particular. Northwest

FLORIDA IN SUMMER.
GAINESVILLE, Fla., June 23.
Eds. REPUBLICAN.—The weather has been quite warm here during the past week, the thermometer ranging from 86 to 92. During the middle of the day it is pretty warm, even for the old settlers, to work in the sun, as the heat reflects back from the sand, but there is a lack of saturnity as you have during such heats at the North, and in the shade on a veranda or under the shade of trees it is cool and comfortable.
Last Wednesday morning about 8 o'clock I started to walk out to the little farm I have purchased, and walking slow with an umbrella I found myself sweating very considerably; in fact, sweating is very easy work for persons during their first summer here, especially if they come in the spring; but after sitting a few minutes under the shade of the old oaks that used to surround the old residence, I was perfectly cool, so much so that coat and vest were not uncomfortable, and there has been but one night yet that I have not required a good woolen blanket.
Orange trees are now putting on their vigorous summer growth, and weeds are beginning to grow, which they do here very rampant, especially on the rich, hammock lands, which is supposed by many to be account for that kind of land being somewhat more unhealthy.
Having never written about some of the humorous, and to a Northerner, ludicrous scenes, I will endeavor to describe a Saturday in town.
Early in the morning you will see the colored population come into town, men and women, in all manner of vehicles common to them; some with carriage with one or two shafts, the ends of the shafts being held up by passing through rings on each end of a short yoke, and driven by a line passing round the horns. Then with the horse, mule or jack, as the case may be, in carts, with the man riding on the animal, and Aunt Dinah or Clyde sitting on a board or box.
Some come with two horses or a yoke of cattle. You will see around town on dry goods boxes or improvised tables, baskets, boxes or benches, looking as though a number had a notion to lunch or picnic together; but about noon you will notice that those who wish are being helped to stand, and on closer inspection you find it to be a sort of street restaurant. What they sell I have never yet found out, except I saw watermelons cut up and sold, for what darker won't eat watermelon. The crowd will stay in town till after dark, and some of them till after dark. The most part of them are civil, except a few who can get whisky; they will get noisy in the saloons; but I do not think any more so than the same number of laboring men of any class who take a holiday.
Sometimes the streets will be crowded considerably during part of the afternoon, and if they have any money the most part of it will be spent before they leave town. A good many of the colored people make considerable raising "truck" or cotton. The most trusty ones among them are the older ones, who were formerly slaves.
I send you a specimen of orange wood, which you will see is very solid and fine grain. J. H. H.

High License in Joliet.
St. Louis, June 25.—The river is still rising steadily. The situation here and in East St. Louis is practically unchanged. The Downman dyke still stands as constantly being strengthened. Threats were made last night to cut what is known as the Madison Company Dyke, which is a high embankment running eastwardly from the river a mile and a half, about midway between Brooklyn and Venice. After a long, angry wrangle between a number of inhabitants of the former place and the people living north of the dyke it was decided that nothing be done until to day, as the cutting of this dyke would let more water into Brooklyn. The people were very determined and guarded the levee all night with shot guns. A large volume of water still flows through the break made yesterday in the Chicago & Alton and other railroad tracks and is spreading out, covering more bottom toward the bluffs and along the Vandallia railroad, but no damage to the latter is as yet reported. At some places along the Missouri the water is still rising. At others it has fallen from 5 inches to 2 feet.
A dispatch from Bismarck says the Yellow Stone river is already as high as last year, and the Missouri rising at that point. Telegrams from other places, high up the Missouri, indicate that the usual June rise has begun. In all likelihood it will reach here before the present flood recedes.
LINCOLN, Neb., June 25.—A special from Tecumseh, 45 miles south, on the Big Nemaha river says: The heaviest rain ever known fell here Friday night. The streams are already overflowed. This addition to the flood made a raging torrent of every creek. Fifty thousand dollars' worth of bridges are washed out. Thousands of hogs and hundreds of cattle are drowned. Crops are badly damaged in the bottom lands, which fortunately are a small proportion of the country. The total loss in the county, which is a small one, will exceed $300,000. Eight inches of water fell on Friday night and six inches had fallen the previous week. Houses are washed away and families are destitute. No one was drowned. Two persons were killed by lightning. Tecumseh, a town of 2,000 people, is out of groceries and flour. Nemaha Valley, 100 miles long, is entirely cut off from railroad communication.
CHAMPAIGN, Ill., June 24.—A great audience witnessed the reception of a very large number of new members in the Methodist Church here to-day.
Rev. I. Villars, pastor. At the extensive revival last winter over 200 joined the church, 147 on probation as new converts. All of these but four were recommended for full membership, and to-day they were received and baptism administered.
The rite was mostly by sprinkling, but some were immersed. Rev. I.
Villars, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Champaign, has been honored with the degree of Doctor of Divinity by the Faculty and Board of Trustees of the Indiana Asbury University at their annual commencement just closed. He is the author of some popular publications, especially one on the Resurrection, and is a talented preacher.
WASHINGTON, June 25.—The president issued an executive order this afternoon, promulgating the changes made in the internal revenue collection districts. The order takes effect the first of July next, or as soon thereafter as practicable. The number of districts is reduced from 120 to 82. The changes in Illinois are as follows:
The second and third districts are consolidated, to be known as the second district, Lucien B. Crocker, collector, headquarters probably at Aurora. The seventh and eighth districts are consolidated under the name of the eighth district, John W. Hill, collector.
CHICAGO, June 25.—The Union composers on the daily papers of this city have voted, by a bare majority, to exact 45 cents per thousand and for type setting on morning and 40 on afternoon papers after July 2.
They are now paid 40 and 37 cents respectively. The publishers of the Tribune, Inter-Ocean, Daily News and Journal refuse to accede to the demand, but propose to offer the abandoned subscribers to new men.
CHICAGO, June 25.—The late failure of McClellan, Everingham & Co. grows worse and worse as the actual state of affairs are developed. It was first put at $1,000,000, then at $2, 500,000; two days ago J. R. Bensley, receiver of the firm, said the liabilities would exceed $5,000,000. In an interview to-night he said the liabilities are over $6,000,000. Of this sum about $4,000,000 are due Chicago banks, which are secured by land collateral. The remaining liabilities are over $2,000,000, distributed in large and small sums. The largest liability to any individual is $120,000, and there are several of this kind. Only a week before the failure $850,000 was received from Milwakee by the firm and was all swallowed up in margins. For the settlement of accounts outside the banks Mr. Bensley says the only assets are $50,000 and office fixtures.
JOLIET, Ill., June 25.—When the license was fixed at $1,000 it was noted in the Tribune that an effort would be made to reconsider it. The license year expires in June and tonight being the last time for the council to meet before the license year expires, a desperate effort was made to reconsider it. The reform mayor read the rules from Roberts' manual, which had been adopted for the government of the council, to the effect that a motion to reconsider must be made at the same session that the question to be reconsidered passed. Motions for substitutes, suspension of rules, previous question, and appeals to the house were made in vain, and after a stormy allocation all dodges were defeated and the $1,000 resolution passed at last session was sustained by the majority of the council in favor of it and against the filibusters.
KANSAS CITY, June 25.—The river is 23 feet and four inches, and rising steadily. The inhabitants of West Kansas City are prepared to leave.
There is much apprehension regarding the ice houses and other property along the river, and that vicinity.
The water is now considerably higher than at any time since 1881.
NOTES.
I desire to inform my friends and customers that on and after Sunday, July 1, my barber shop will be closed on the Sabbath. With a disposition and desire to accommodate customers, I feel that it was better to observe the fourth commandment and remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy. Very respectfully,

How Men Should Spend Their Hol-

ship.
New York Sun.
"How men should spend their holidays" is a subject which is being discussed in the most interesting manner. During the winter season, when the weather is so cold, and the people are so much confined to their homes, it is not surprising that they should be so much interested in the subject.

McCallough at Quincy.

An exchange says: "The news from John McCallough is everything that his best friends could wish. He has been living with his friend, John B. Carson, at Quincy, Ill., since the 7th of May, and rest and cure have restored him to his usual strength and good spirits. He takes a twenty-mile drive every day, and has explored all the farms in the neighborhood, and made friends with the farmers, and is cheerful, hopeful and resolute. There is no ground whatever for the sensational reports which have been circulated respecting him." Among all the actors in the long roll of fame who have never been of one who has been so fortunate as John McCallough, whether sick or well, known or unknown, famous or otherwise.

THE ladies of St. John's church will welcome you at their social which will be held at the furnished home of Mr. C. P. Thibodeau, corner Eldorado and Jackson streets, on Tuesday evening, June 26th. Lunch baskets, music, dancing, and any amount of talking. Come and enjoy the social. 25-43

The stockholders are: Messrs. Dr. H. C. Johns, John A. Brown, I. O. Eymann, E. W. Wood, N. A. White, E. Wade, The Thatchers, Lumber Co., W. W. Foster, Charles Lewis, Daniel Moore, John H. Ebert, James Millikin, D. H. Heilmann, Charles L. Griswold, Reuben Betzer, Michael Eichinger, Volney Barber, Peter Ullrich and Henry Lyon.

The company will be organized and incorporated under the State laws, and will be known as the "Decatur Creamery Company." The buildings will be put up by Holt & Hall, of Osceola, Iowa, who thoroughly understand their business. As stated in the Republican last week, the main creamery building will be 35x44 feet in size, with three air chambers around the entire building. There will also be built an ice house 35x44 feet, having a capacity of 400 tons, and also a coal house. Both buildings will be 12 feet high, built of wood, on brick foundation. The operating outfit will consist of an engine and boiler of 10 horse power capacity; two churns; two large cream vats, of 300 gallons each; two butter workers, one power and one hand-worker; cold water pump; cold and hot water coils; 50 patent hauling cans; a good well of water for reservoir, if necessary, and other necessary appliances will complete the outfit. The creamery will have a capacity of making 2500 pounds of standard butter a day.

PAINTERS GET READY.

THE DECATURIAN is assured by Mr. J. A. Brown and other stockholders that the Creamery will be in operation in September next, as stated, and we advise all the farmers in the county to prepare at once to provide the company with cream. Farmers will find it to their interest to provide themselves with good cows, as there will be a lively and constant demand for all the cream in the county, which the company will purchase at 20 to 25 cents a "gauge," or the market price for butter. A "gauge" of cream will make a pound of butter, and the cream will be measured in patent cans sold at actual cost by the company to the farmers. The establishment of this Creamery at Decatur is one of the most important and substantial enterprises in the history of our growing city, because it will be beneficial alike to the farmers, the company and citizens. The company will supply our people with fresh butter at a uniform price, and will be enabled, no doubt, to furnish a portion of the outside world with quantities of the golden product of the Decatur Creamery.

A Sad Incident.

THE many friends of Mr. Wm. M. Stephens, formerly with Merchants & Wells, of this city, will regret to hear of his death by drowning in the San Antonio river, Texas. His friends were notified yesterday and greatly shocked. Notice was given to take care of the body until the weather permitted removal. The deceased was a brother of Mrs. Ed. Brantley and Eugene A. Stephens, the grocer. The deceased was a man in the prime of life, and was very energetic and successful in his business during his many years sojourn in this city. He made many friends in all circles. The body will be interred at San Antonio, and will be brought here in a few weeks or months.

The Weather.

Heavy rain in Decatur last night—cloudy to-day. At 9:30 a. m. it was cloudy in Chicago, thermometer at 62; at St. Paul, clear, 62; at Omaha, clear, 61.

The Old Reliable.

IN this season of floods and washouts it is gratifying to know that the old reliable Hannibal & St. Joe railroad is carrying passengers through to Kansas City on time, though passengers have to be ferried from Hannibal to Kansas City, a distance of over a mile. Notwithstanding this, which is only an inconvenience, the I. & S. Joe lands its passengers in the Union depot at Kansas City in time to connect with all trains for the west. In order to do this, however, all the resources of this energetic company have been brought into requisition and every point strained to accommodate the traveling public.

A competitive drill between sergeants of companies H. and K. for a handsome gold medal will be a feature of the fair. The following articles will be voted and raffled for: Sewing machine, lady's gold watch, rocking chair, policeman's silver badge, meerschaum pipe, wax doll, vapor cook stove, cigar maker's box.

Blow Off His Head.

William Etherton, aged 37 years, having a wife and five children living—five children having died—committed suicide yesterday afternoon at his cabin home in the timber, six miles southwest of Decatur, in the edge of Blue Mount township. Albert Ward rode to the city on a jaded horse and at 6 o'clock last evening notified Coroner Bendure of the occurrence. The coroner, accompanied by W. C. Bulhard, John Plotner and another man, at once started for the suicide's home in a spring wagon, which they reached after much trouble at about nine o'clock last night. A jury, of which Noah Jacobs was foreman, was formed, and an investigation held. It was learned that about two years ago Etherton received a sunstroke, and that since that misfortune he has acted strangely at times. It was also learned that last Saturday he had made preparations to take his life by hanging, but he was prevented from carrying his intentions into execution. On Monday it was supposed he was in his right mind, and the family started to visit a neighbor. Mr. Etherton going alone. After they had gone some distance, Mr. Etherton said he had forgotten something, and returned to the cabin, telling his wife and children to go on slowly and he would overtake them. A few minutes afterward a loud report of a gun was heard, but no alarm was felt, as the people in that vicinity are almost constantly shooting. After awhile Mrs. Etherton became uneasy because of the non-appearance of her husband, and she returned home, when she found the father of her children lying near the cabin, with nearly the whole of his head blown off. The dead had been done with an old army musket, which had been loaded with bullets and shot. The suicide had taken off his right boot and placing the muzzle under his chin he pulled the trigger with his toe, and in a moment he was in eternity. The verdict was that Etherton had committed suicide, and it is the supposition that the act was committed while he was temporarily insane.
